Dialogue

Akira Ito, a Japanese businessman, arrives at the airport in Chicago.

Officer: Good morning. Please show me your passport.

Akira: Here it is.

Officer: What is the purpose of your visit?

Akira: Sightseeing and visiting friends.

Officer: How long are you planning to stay in the United States?

Akira: About a week.

Officer: Do you have a return ticket?

Akira: Yes, here you are.

Officer: OK, where will you be staying?

Akira: I'm staying at a hotel in Indianapolis.

Officer: I see. And have you been in the US before?

Akira: No, this is my first time.

Akira gets his fingerprints and photo taken.

Officer: OK, that's all. Enjoy your stay.

Akira leaves the Immigration area and picks up his luggage. He goes to the Customs area.

Officer: Your customs declaration, please.

Akira: Here it is.

Officer: Do you have anything to declare?
Tobacco, alcohol, or fresh foods?

Akira: No, I don't.

Officer: Thank you, that's all. Have a nice trip.
